The screenshot shows the PayPunch Enterprise software interface. The main window has a menu bar with "Companies", "Employees", "Reports", "Tools", and "Help". Below the menu bar are several icons for "Employee Attendance", "Assign Employees to Shifts", "Assign Employees to Exceptions", and "Employee Attendance". The interface is divided into several sections:

- Employee Attendance: Contains operations like "Add Registration", "Edit Registration", "Delete Registration", and "Show Deleted Registrations".
- Employee Tree: A hierarchical tree view showing departments such as "Accounting", "Customer Service", "Human Resources", "Manufacturing", "Shipping", and "DEF Enterprises".
- Total Working Hours: A table with columns: Employee ID, First Name, Last Name, Actual Hours, and Rounded Hours. It lists employees like Katy Smith, Jim Bow, Clark Kent, and Sue Thomas.
- Details Working Hours: A table with columns: Actual In, Actual Out, Actual Hours, Rounded In, Rounded Out, Rounded Hours, and Shift. It shows time logs for dates like 12/06/2007 and 12/07/2007.
- Accounting Period: A section with "From:" and "To:" date pickers (Dec 1, 2007 to Dec 31, 2007) and a "Date Range:" dropdown set to "User defined".
